Around 12:00 am, police were on patrol southbound on Highway 432 and observed a truck travelling northbound at a high rate of speed. The vehicle entered police radar at 135 km/hr. and was locked in at 129 km/hr. Police pursued the vehicle and followed it to a yard, known to police and the driver to be suspended. The suspect vehicle was parked by a garage in the yard and the driver had already exited the vehicle and was sitting on the steps. Police demanded the accused's driver's license and vehicle registration which the driver refused to provide and was yelling at police that he was not driving and does not have a license. The accused was advised that he would be receiving a ticket for driving while suspended and his vehicle would be towed. The accused then advised police that if they attempted to tow the vehicle, he would run police over. Police confirmed that the driver was in fact suspended from driving. While serving the Offence Notice on the accused and explaining the process for towing the vehicle, the accused ran around the vehicle and jumped into the driver's seat. Police prevented the accused from shutting the door that resulted in one officer receiving injuries to his arm. The accused refused to exit the vehicle, kicked at police striking one officer in the chest, and grabbed onto the steering wheel and other things inside the vehicle to prevent police from getting him out of the vehicle. Eventually, the accused was taken out of the vehicle where he continued to resist and fight with police. The accused's mother then attempted to push past police and was told not to interfere, but refused to listen. The mother was eventually restrained and handcuffs applied to keep her from interfering. The vehicle was towed from the scene and the accused was transported to the Morden Police Service. The 25-year-old male from the RM of Stanley is facing charges of two counts of Assault Police Officer, Obstruct Peace Officer, Resist Arrest, Utter Threats, Breach of Probation, Drive Disqualified, and Fail to Produce Vehicle Registration. He was remanded into custody and will be appearing in Provincial Court Tuesday morning.

Corn & Apple made for a very busy weekend for Morden Police Service. Several minor calls for service were received throughout the weekend but no major incidents to report.

August 14th – August 21st, 2017

August 14th, 2017

Received a call around 6:27 am from a resident at 221 Mountain Street in regards to what he said sounded like a domestic argument that has been going on for half an hour. The caller said a male and female that have just recently moved into one of the apartments was screaming and yelling at each other and slamming doors. Police arrived on scene and spoke with a female who said her and her boyfriend got into an argument this morning. She said the boyfriend has since left to work and there was no physical altercation. There were no charges as a result of this incident.

August 14th, 2017

Police received a report of a hit and run to a vehicle that occurred on August 12th in the Morden Co-op Grocery parking lot. The driver returned to his vehicle, a 2011 blue Nissan Sentra, and observed damage to the rear bumper area. Anyone with information regarding this incident are asked to call the Morden Police Service at 822-4900, Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477, submit a secure tip online at www.manitobacrimestoppers.com or text "TIPMAN" plus your message to CRIMES (274637).

August 15th, 2017

Police received a 911 call at 12:03 pm with screaming in the background before the caller hung up. Police attended the residence and could hear a male and female swearing at each other downstairs. The male became upset that the female called police and attempted to move to an area of the basement where police could not see him. Police determined the disagreement was over the female receiving a text from an old boyfriend and would not show the new boyfriend the message. The female indicated she was packing her belongings and leaving the residence for good. Police remained on scene to ensure the situation did not escalate as the couple continued to yell and swear at each other. There were no assaults or threats reported and therefore no charges as a result of this incident.

August 16th, 2017

Around 8:30 am, police received a call advising of an accident at the corner of 7th Street and North Railway Street. Witness information indicated that the driver was possibly intoxicated. Police arrived on scene and observed a vehicle on the southwest sidewalk that hit a lamppost, a stop sign, and a large tree. The vehicle also struck a parked vehicle on the north side of the parking lot across the street that sustained some minor damage. The driver was on scene and known to police to be a suspended driver. There was a partial can of beer observed in the centre cup holder. A demand was made for the driver to provide a sample of his breath on a roadside screening device that resulted in a reading of only 13 mg%. The vehicle belonged to a friend of the driver and the license plates were from a different vehicle all together. As a result of this incident, the 18 year old driver from Morden was charged with Drive Disqualified, Drive an Unregistered Vehicle, Attach Unauthorized Number Plates and as a Driver, Carry Liquor in a vehicle contrary to the Liquor and Gaming Control Act.

August 16th, 2017

Around 4:30 pm, the accused male approached the victim's vehicle while she was out delivering papers with her children. The accused knocked on the window and said he just wanted to talk. The victim did not roll the window down and called police immediately. The male was arrested and released on a Promise to Appear and will be appearing in Morden Provincial Court on October 17th.

August 17th, 2017

Further to the above reported accident at 7th Street and North Railway Street, police received a complaint from a witness around 10:20 pm this date regarding a vehicle travelling west bound on Highway #3 into Morden with its 4-way lights on and a smashed front windshield. The vehicle was travelling at a high rate of speed and swerving in its lane. The vehicle was located as it turned southbound onto Route 100 in Morden. The vehicle was stopped and police observed the vehicle to be missing the driver's side mirror and the windshield to be severely damaged. Police observed a strong odor of liquor coming from the vehicle and an open case of beer on the front passenger's seat. The driver was known to police and recognized as the driver involved in the accident from the previous morning. When asked to step out of the vehicle, the driver had to lean heavily against the door to get out of the car. At this time, police observed a strong odor of liquor on the accused's breath. The accused was asked to step back to the police vehicle and police observed him to have a difficult time walking. The accused was advised he was being placed under arrest for impaired driving and a demand to provide samples of his breath was made. Tests were administered and analyzed at 140 and 130 mg%. As a result, the 18-year-old male from Morden is facing further charges of Impaired Driving, Drive over .08, Drive while Disqualified, Attach Unauthorized Number Plate, Drive without Motor Vehicle liability Insurance, Drive a vehicle when view is obstructed and As a Driver, Carry Liquor in a vehicle contrary to the Liquor and Gaming Control Act. He will be appearing in Morden Provincial Court October 17th.

August 18th, 2017

At around 11:55 pm, officers observed a vehicle driving eastbound on Thornhill Street without any headlights. Police activated emergency lights and stopped the vehicle. An odor of liquor could be detected while speaking to the driver. The driver had difficulty providing his driver's license and vehicle registration, handing several receipts to police instead. A demand was made for the driver to provide a sample of his breath on a roadside screening device that resulted in a fail. The driver was arrested for impaired driving and further tests resulted in readings of 140 and 130 mg%. The vehicle was impounded for the usual 30 days and the 59-year-old driver from Altona was charged with Drive over .08 and Driving Impaired. He was released on a Promise to Appear in Morden Provincial Court in October.

July 13th, 2017

The Morden Police Service would like to confirm that a major incident did occur yesterday in the south portion of the city. The incident began when members of the Morden Police service were investigating a stolen vehicle at approximately 12:15 pm. This was an ongoing investigation and police were familiar with several suspects that have been involved in similar incidents in the past months. Police were able to take several individuals into custody and recovered one of the stolen vehicles. Through further investigation police learned that one of the suspects was attempting to evade police and had moved to a nearby location. With the assistance of the Winkler Police Service, members were able to attend to this location and several more individuals were taken into custody, and police recovered a second stolen vehicle. While at this location one of the suspects barricaded themselves inside the residence and would not communicate with police. Police learned of the presence of a weapon and the Regional Support Tactical Team was deployed to deal with an armed and barricaded situation. Police utilized negotiators throughout the day and at approximately 9:20 pm the suspect was taken into police custody. Numerous individuals are now facing drug and property related crimes. Police are continuing to investigate with more details to follow.

July 4th – July 10th, 2017

July 4th, 2017

Around 9:30 am this date, police received information regarding a possible stolen vehicle driving in the area of 9th Street South in Morden. Police attended the area and observed a vehicle matching the description in the parking lot of Tabor Home at 220 9th Street. Two females were exiting the vehicle at the time police arrived and were detained for a stolen vehicle investigation. The vehicle was confirmed stolen from Steinbach as well as the license plates stolen from another vehicle in Winnipeg. Both women were arrested for Possession of Property Obtained by Crime over $5000.00. Police searched the vehicle and located several items including methamphetamine, 12 used clear baggies, an iphone, 2 hatchets, a bottom half- skull mask, various drug paraphernalia and break and enter tools including bolt cutters, a hacksaw, and wrenches. The methamphetamine, baggies and vehicle keys were located inside the female driver's purse. The female passenger admitted to attending Morden in the stolen vehicle with the other woman being the driver. Also in the vehicle were two males. When they arrived in the parking lot of Tabor Home, the two males and female driver were removing a couple of bikes from the back of vehicle which she believed were stolen but did not know from where. The males then left the area and the females went to a person's residence in the area that they knew to shower. They returned to the vehicle at which time police arrived. The 24-year-old female passenger was charged with Possession of property obtained by crime over $5000.00, Possession of property obtained by crime under 5000.00, Possession of a controlled substance, Possession for the purpose of trafficking meth, Possession of a weapon for a dangerous purpose X 2 and Possession of break in instruments.
